GAYNOR EXCISE POLICY ADOPTED, SAYS MAYOR

Police Inspector Who Says He Can't Enforce Law Belongs in "Goatville," Mitchel Declares.

Mayor Muchel was asked to-day if of the forty-sixth annual convention Mayor regiled he had received many presented by Mrs. Raymond Brown fragist an opportunity to be heard such letters and had referred them of New York. It was considered as before the roll was called. A preliminary victory for the so-called "administration" forces against Mrs. Dodge filed her minority report "How about the inspector who is the element in opposition and gen-

GIRL SLEEP WALKER IS VICTIM OF GAS

Believed to Have Turned Jet While She Roamed House in Slumber-

Whole Family Imperilled.

BIGDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 12 Miss Daisy Ireland, 21 years old, is in a serious condition from gas asphysiation, the result, it is believed, of turning on a jet while walking in her sleep last night. Members of her family say she has had somnambullatic spells before. The theory is that the girl arose from bed and, walking about in her sleep, turned on the gas believing she was lighting it.

Miss Ireland's father, aroused by heavy breathing, discovered the house filling with gas fumes. He aroused the other members of the family, but Mise Datay was unconscious. Doctors fear the girl may cost was $162,000,000. This sum will be far exceeded.

The abandoning of the present syphon where the aqueduct line dips under the Hudson at Cornwall will delay the completion of the aqueduct until at least January, 1916. The original estimate of the aqueduct's cost was $162.000.000. This sum will be far exceeded.

The Daniels Company contract calls for a supplementary shaft and tunnel construction in connection with that portion of the squeduct known as Mooda Pressure tunnel. There is to be a new $900-foot tunnel about 400 feet below the base of the mountain and 14 feet in diameter.

TWO ENGLISH DUKES. COUSINS OF KING GEORGE. FIGHTING FOR KAISER.

LONDON, Nov. 12 (Associated Press.)

The status of the two sami-British Dukes, who are now fighting in the German army against England—the Duke of Cumberland-and the Duke of Albany—will be debated in the House of Commons to-morrow on a duestion to be put by Swift MacNelli, Nationalist, who is anxious to know how Fremier Asquith purposes to desi, with these two cousins of King George of England Mr. MacNelli will urge that they be deprived of their British poerages and titles and their agats in the House of Lords.

The Duke of Albany, who has also the title of Duke of Spac-Loburg and Gotha, is a first cousin of King George. He was been in 1884 and was sequented in England and in Germany. He has a commission in one British and in several German regiments. His wife is a daughter of the Duke of Schleswig-Holstein.
